

1238B

offset screwdrivers for cross head Phillips® screws

UNI 7083 DIN 5208

- For use on off-centre screws.
- Lever arm provides high tightening force.

|  | art.      | PH  | Lmm | g |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|-----|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 012380201                                                                       | 1238B 1-2 | 1-2 | 125     | 29,6                                                                                   |
| 012380203                                                                       | 1238B 3-4 | 3-4 | 200     | 147,7                                                                                  |

